CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE GROUP  (STREELIGENCE REPORT 25X1  COUNTRY Czechcelovakia DATE 25X1  COUNTRY Czechcelovakia DATE 25X1  SUBJECT Slovak Democrate Protest Against Constitutional DIST. 13 Earch 1947  PAGES  ORIGIN 25X1  25X1  The Slovak Democratic representative on the "Constitutional Assembly has stopped attending the moetings of his committee as a protest against the way the writing of the committee as a protest handled.  25X1  Slovak Democratic leaders believe there is no hope whatsoever that the present Assembly will be able to agree on a constitution. Salisationally will be able to agree on a constitution and the Slovak Consequently, the Slovak Democrate and forward to new elections this summer and fees the area looking forward to new elections this summer and fees the handled.  Norway and Slovakia, Consequently, the Slovak Democrate and forward and Slovakia, Certain of the leaders predict that by the summer of 1946 the Communist losses will have become so great that a coalition government by the Slovak Democrate and the non Communist parties of Bohemia—Moravia will be possible.  CONFIDENTIAL  25X1  CONFIDENTIAL	CHANGE IN CLE	Approved For Release 2005/02/15 : CIA-RDP82-00457R000400240001-4
CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE GROUP  INTELLIGENCE REPORT  COUNTRY Caecheslovakia  DATE  25X1  COUNTRY Caecheslovakia  DATE  25X1  DIST. 19 Increased 1947  PAGES  Countities Meetings  Countities Meetings  DIST. 19 Increased 1947  PAGES  SUPPLEMENT  25X1  25X1  25X1  25X1  The Slovak Democratic representative on the "Constitution: Committee" of the Caecheslovak Constitutional Assembly has stopped attending the meetings of his committee as a profest against the way the writing of the new constitution is being handled.  2. Slovak Democratic leaders believe there is no hope whatsoever that the present Assembly will be able to agree on a constitution. Satisfaction will be particularly impossible on all maters concerning the relationship between the Caechs and the Slovakis. Consequently, the Slovak Democrate are looking forward to new elections this summer and feel that the non-Community parties will gain considerably in both Bohemia-Movavia and Slovakia. Certain of the leaders predict that by the summer of 1945 the Communist losses will have become so great that a condition government by the Slovak Democrate and the non-Communist parties of Bohemia-Movavia will be possible.  This document is hereby regarded to Country the Slovak Democrate and the non-Communist parties of Bohemia-Movavia will be possible.  This document is hereby regarded to Country the Slovak Democrate and the non-Communist parties of Bohemia-Movavia will be not Country the Slovak Democrate and the non-Communist parties of Bohemia-Movavia will be not Country the Slovak Democrate and the non-Communist parties of Bohemia-Movavia will be not Country the Slovak Democrate and the non-Communist parties of Bohemia-Movavia will be not Country the Slovak Democrate and the non-Communist parties of Bohemia-Movavia will be not Country the Slovak Democrate and the non-Communist parties of Bohemia-Movavia will be not Slovak Democrate and the non-Communist parties of Bohemia-Movavia will be not state.  Next Review Date: 2008	DDA REG
COUNTRY Csechoslovakia  SUBJECT Slovak Demograte Protest Against Constitutional Countities Nestings  DIST. 15 Jarch 1947  PAGES  SUPPLEMENT  25X1  1. The Slovak Demogratic representative on the "Constitution States and the way the writing of the general assembly has stopped attending the meetings of his committee as a protest sagainst the way the writing of the general constitution is being handled.  2. Slovak Demogratic leaders believe there is no hope whatsoever that the present Assembly his bable to agree on a constitution. Satisfaction will be patiently impossible on all matters concerning the relationship between the Czechs and the Slovaks. Consequently, the Slovak Demogratic are looking formed to new elections this summer and feel that the non-Communist parties will gain considerably in both Bohemia-Boravia and Slovakia. Certain of the leaders predict that by the Summer of 1946 the Communist losses will have become so great that a coalition government by the Slovak Demograts and the non-Communist parties of Bohemia-Boravia will be possible.  CONFIDENTIAL	\ \ \ \ \ \ \ \ \ \ \ \ \ \ \ \ \ \ \	A SECONDA
SUBJECT Slovak Democrats Protest Against Constitutional Committee Meetings  25X1  25X1  25X1  The Slovak Democratic representative on the "Constitution Committee" of the Czechoslovak Constitution Assembly has storved attending the meetings of his committee as a protest against the way the writing of the pew constitution is being handled.  25X1  25X1  25X1  25X1  The Slovak Democratic leaders believe there is no hope whatsoever that the present Assembly will be able to agree on a constitution. Satisfaction will be particularly impossible on all matters concerning the relationship between the Czechs and the Slovaks. Consequently, the Slovak Democrat are looking forward to new elections this summer and feel that the non-Community parties will gain considerably in both Bohemia—Moravia and Slovakia. Certain of the leaders predict that by the summer of 1946 the Communist parties will gain considerably in both Bohemia—Moravia and Slovakia. Certain of the leaders predict that by the summer of 1946 the Communist parties of Bohemia-Moravia will be possible.  This document is hereby regaded to Confidential Moravia and Stovakia parties of Bohemia-Moravia will be possible.  CONFIDENTIAL		25X1
SUBJECT Slovak Democrate Protest Against Constitutional Committee Meetings  DIST. 18 March 1947  PAGES  SUPPLEMENT  25X1  The Slovak Democratic representative on the "Constitution Committee" of the Czechoslovak Constitutional Assembly has stopped attending the meetings of his committee as a protest against the way the writing of the new constitution is being handled.  2. Slovak Democratic leaders believe there is no hope whatsoever that the present Assembly will be able to agree on a constitution. Satisfaction will be particularly impossible on all matters conce ming the relationship between the Czechs and the Slovaks. Consquently, the Slovak Democrate are looking forward to new elections this summer and feel that the non-Communist parties will gain considerably in both Bohemia-Moravia and Slovakia. Certain of the leaders prodict that by the Summer of 1948 the Communist losses will have become so great that a coalition government by the Slovak Democrats and the non-Communist parties of Bohemia-Moravia will be possible.  This document is hereby regaded to CONFIDENTIAL  CONFIDENTIAL  CONFIDENTIAL
DIST. 18 March 1947  PAGES  SUPPLEMENT  25X1  The Slovak Desocratic representative on the "Constitution Committee" of the Czechoslovak Constitutional Assembly has stopped attending the meetings of his committee as a protest squant the way the writing of the new constitution Is peing handled.  2. Slovak Democratic leaders believe there is no hope whatsoever that the present Assembly will be able to agree on a constitution. Satisfaction will be particularly impossible on all matters conce ming the relationship between the Czechs and the Slovaks. Consequently, the Slovak Democrats are looking forward to new elections this summer and feel that the non-Communist parties will gain considerably in both Bohemia-Moravia and Slovakia. Certain of the leaders predict that by the summer of 1946 the Communist losses will have become so great that a coalition government by the Slovak Democrats and the non Communist parties of Bohemia-Moravia will be possible.  This document is heady regaded to Director of Conflownia in accordance with the lieter of 16 October 1973 from the Director of Conflownia in the Conflownia Certain of the Conflownia in accordance with the lieter of 16 October 1973 from the Director of Central inclinations to the Archivist of the United States. Next Review Date: 2008  CONFIDENTIAL	COUNTRY Cze	choslovakia DAIE:
PAGES SUPPLEMENT  25X1  The Slovak Desocratic representative on the "Constitution Committee" of the Czechoslovak Constitutional Assembly has stopied attending the meetings of his committee as a protest against the way the writing of the new constitution is being handled.  2. Slovak Democratic leaders believe there is no hope whatsoever that the present Assembly will be able to agree on a constitution. Satisfaction will be particularly impossible on all matters concerning the relationship between the Czechs and the Slovaks. Consequently, the Slovak Democrate are looking forward to new elections this summer and feel that the non-Community parties will gain considerably in both Behemia-Noravia and Slovakia. Certain of the leaders predict that by the summer of 1946 the Communist losses will have become so great that a coalition government by the Slovak Democrats and the non Communist parties of Bohemia-Moravia will be possible.  This document is being very regarded to CONFIDENTIAL  The document is being very regarded to CONFIDENTIAL Next Review Date: 2008  CONFIDENTIAL	SUBJECT STO	walt Demograte Protect Acat act Concettinations
25X1  The Slovak Desceratic representative on the "Constitution Committee" of the Czechoslovak Constitutional Assembly has stopped attending the meetings of his committee as a protest against the way the writing of the new constitution is being handled.  Slovak Democratic leaders believe there is no hope whatsoever that the present Assembly will be able to agree on a constitution Satisfaction will be particularly impossible on all matters concerning the relationship between the Czechs and the Slovaks. Consequently, the Slovak Democratic are looking forward to new elections this summer and feel that the non-Communist parties will gain considerably in both Bohemia-Moravia and Slovakia. Certain of the leaders predict that by the summer of 1946 the Communist losses will have become so great that a condition government by the Slovak Democrats and the non-Communist parties of Bohemia-Moravia will be possible.  This document is hereby regaded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.  Next Review Date: 2003  CONFIDENTIAL	Com	mittee Meetings
1. The Slovak Democratic representative on the "Constitution Committee" of the Czechoslovak Constitutional Assembly has stored attending the meetings of his committee as a protest against the way the writing of the new constitution is being handled.  2. Slovak Democratic leaders believe there is no hope whatsoever that the present Assembly will be able to agree on a constitution. Satisfaction will be particularly impossible on all matters concerning the relationship between the Czechos and the Slovaks. Consequently, the Slovak Democrata are looking forward to new elections this summer and feel that the non-Communist parties will gain considerably in both Bohemia-Moravia and Slovakia. Certain of the leaders predict that by the summer of 1946 the Communist losses will have become so great that a coelition government by the Slovak Democrats and the non-Communist parties of Bohemia-Moravia will be possible.  This document is hereby regaded to COMFIDENTIAL in accordance with the liter of 16 October 1973 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.  Next Review Date: 2003	ORIGIN
The Slovak Democratic representative on the "Constitution Committee" of the Czechoslovak Constitutional Assembly has stopmed attending the meetings of his committee as a protest against the way the writing of the new constitution is being handled.  2. Slovak Democratic leaders believe there is no hope whatsoever that the present Assembly will be able to agree on a constitution. Satisfaction will be particularly impossible on all matters conce ming the relationship between the Czechs and the Slovaks. Consequently, the Slovak Democrats are locking forward to new elections this summer and feel that the non-Community parties will gain considerably in both Bohemia-Moravis and Slovakia. Certain of the leaders predict that by the summer of 1948 the Communist losses will have become so great that a coslition government by the Slovak Democrats and the non Communist parties of Bohemia-Moravia will be possible.  This document is hereby regaded to Confidential Democratic and the non Communist parties of Bohemia-Moravia will be possible.  This document is hereby regaded to Confidential Democratic and the non Communist parties of Bohemia-Moravia will be Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivest of the United States.  Next Review Date: 2008	Jiudiii
The Slovak Democratic representative on the "Constitution Committee" of the Czechoslovak Constitutional Assembly has stopred attending the meetings of his committee as a protest against the way the writing of the new constitution is being handled.  2. Slovak Democratic leaders believe, there is no hope whatsoever that the present Assembly will be able to agree on a constitution. Satisfaction will be particularly impossible on all matters conce ming the relationship between the Czechs and the Slovak Consequently, the Slovak Democrats are locking forward to new elections this summer and feel that the non-Communist parties will gain considerably in both Bohmia-Moravia and Slovakia. Certain of the leaders predict that by the summer of 1948 the Communist losses will have become so great that a coslition government by the Slovak Democrats and the non Communist parties of Bohemia-Moravia will be possible.  This document is hereby regarded to Confidential Indigence to the Archivest of the United States.  Next Review Date: 2008
1. The Slovak Democratic representative on the "Constitution Committee" of the Czechoslovak Constitutional Assembly has stopred attending the meetings of his committee as a protest against the way the writing of the new constitution is being handled.  2. Slovak Democratic leaders believe, there is no hope whatsoever that the present Assembly will be able to agree on a constitution. Satisfaction will be particularly impossible on all matters concerning the relationship between the Czechs and the Slovaks. Consequently, the Slovak Democrats are locking forward to new elections this summer and feel that the non-Community parties will gain considerably in both Bohmia-Moravia and Slovakia. Certain of the leaders predict that by the summer of 1948 the Communist losses will have become so great that a coelition government by the Slovak Democrats and the non Communist parties of Bohemia-Moravia will be possible.  This document is hereby regarded to Confidence of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.  Next Review Date: 2008	Maria and American	The second secon
1. The Slovak Democratic representative on the "Constitution Committee" of the Czechoslovak Constitutional Assembly has stopped attending the meetings of his committee as a protest against the way the writing of the new constitution is being handled.  2. Slovak Democratic leaders believe there is no hope whatsoever that the present Assembly will be able to agree on a constitution. Satisfaction will be particularly impossible on all matters concerning the relationship between the Czechs and the Slovaks. Consequently, the Slovak Democrats are looking forward to new elections this summer and feel that the non-Communist parties will gain considerably in both Bohemia-Moravia and Slovakia. Certain of the leaders predict that by the summer of 1946 the Communist losses will have become so great that a coalition government by the Slovak Democrats and the non-Communist parties of Bohemia-Moravia will be possible.  This document is hereby regaded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1973 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. Next Review Date: 2008	R x
The Slovak Democratic representative on the "Constitution Committee" of the Czechoslovak Constitutional Assembly has stopred attending the meetings of his committee as a protest against the way the writing of the new constitution is being handled.  2. Slovak Democratic leaders believe there is no hope whatsoever that the present Assembly will be able to agree on a constitution. Satisfaction will be particularly impossible on all matters concerning the relationship between the Czechs and the Slovaks. Consequently, the Slovak Democrats are looking forward to new elections this summer and feel that the non-Communist parties will gain considerably in both Bohemia-Moravia and Slovakia. Certain of the leaders predict that by the summer of 1948 the Communist losses will have become so great that a coalition government by the Slovak Democrats and the non-Communist parties of Bohemia-Moravia will be possible.  This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the liter of 16 October 1973 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.  Next Review Date: 2008  CONFIDENTIAL	STATE WAR	NAVY JUSTICE R&E C&D
The Slovak Democratic representative on the "Constitution Committee" of the Czechoslovak Constitutional Assembly has stopped attending the meetings of his committee as a protest against the way the writing of the new constitution is being handled.  2. Slovak Democratic leaders believe there is no hope whatsoever that the present Assembly will be able to agree on a constitution. Satisfaction will be particularly impossible on all matters concerning the relationship between the Czechs and the Slovaks. Consequently, the Slovak Democrats are looking forward to new elections this summer and feel that the non-Communist parties will gain considerably in both Bohemia-Moravia and Slovakia. Certain of the leaders predict that by the summer of 1948 the Communist losses will have become so great that a coalition government by the Slovak Democrats and the non-Communist parties of Bohemia-Moravia will be possible.  This document is hereby regaded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the liter of 16 Colober 1973 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.  Next Review Date: 2008  CONFIDENTIAL
The Slovak Democratic representative on the "Constitution Committee" of the Czechoslovak Constitutional Assembly has stopped attending the meetings of his committee as a protest against the way the writing of the new constitution is being handled.  2. Slovak Democratic leaders believe there is no hope whatsoever that the present Assembly will be able to agree on a constitution. Satisfaction will be particularly impossible on all matters concerning the relationship between the Czechs and the Slovaks. Consequently, the Slovak Democrats are looking forward to new elections this summer and feel that the non-Communist parties will gain considerably in both Bohemia-Moravia and Slovakia. Certain of the leaders predict that by the summer of 1948 the Communist losses will have become so great that a coalition government by the Slovak Democrats and the non-Communist parties of Bohemia-Moravia will be possible.  This document is hereby regaded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the liter of 16 Colober 1973 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.  Next Review Date: 2008  CONFIDENTIAL
The Slovak Democratic representative on the "Constitution Committee" of the Czechoslovak Constitutional Assembly has stopped attending the meetings of his committee as a protest against the way the writing of the new constitution is being handled.  2. Slovak Democratic leaders believe there is no hope whatsoever that the present Assembly will be able to agree on a constitution. Satisfaction will be particularly impossible on all matters concerning the relationship between the Czechs and the Slovaks. Consequently, the Slovak Democrats are looking forward to new elections this summer and feel that the non-Communist parties will gain considerably in both Bohemia-Moravia and Slovakia. Certain of the leaders predict that by the summer of 1946 the Communist losses will have become so great that a coalition government by the Slovak Democrats and the non-Communist parties of Bohemia-Moravia will be possible.  This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the liter of 16 Colober 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.  Next Review Date: 2008  CONFIDENTIAL
tion. Satisfaction will be particularly impossible on all matters concerning the relationship between the Czechs and the Slovaks. Consequently, the Slovak Democrats are looking forward to new elections this summer and feel that the non-Communist parties will gain considerably in both Bohemia-Moravia and Slovakia. Certain of the leaders predict that by the summer of 1948 the Communist losses will have become so great that a coelition government by the Slovak Democrats and the non-Communist parties of Bohemia-Moravia will be possible.  This document is hereby regaded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1973 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.  Next Review Date: 2008  CONFIDENTIAL	25X1 25X1	committee" of the Czechoslovak Constitutional Assembly has stopped attending the meetings of his committee as a protest against the way the writing of the new constitution is being handled.  Slovak Democratic leaders believe there is no hope whatsoever
This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.  Next Review Date: 2008	25X1	tion. Satisfaction will be particularly impossible on all matters concerning the relationship between the Czechs and the Slovaks. Consequently, the Slovak Democrats are looking forward to new elections this summer and feel that the non-Communist parties will gain considerably in both Bohemia-Moravia and Slovakia. Certain of the leaders predict that by the summer of 1948 the Communist losses will have become
CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.  Next Review Date: 2008  CONFIDENTIAL	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	so great that a coelltion government by the Slovak Democrats and the non-Communist parties of Bohemia-Moravia will be
CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.  Next Review Date: 2008  CONFIDENTIAL
Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.  Next Review Date: 2008  CONFIDENTIAL		CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the
CONFIDENTIAL		Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
		NGAL LIGHTON DAIG. 2000
		CONFIDENTIAL